Commissioner for Patents

Dear Mr. Kowalski,

It is not clear why the Patent Office was unable to send the last Office action in this case directly to you and you have my sincere apologies. From my understanding, a copy of the Office action was received by two different firms, one of which was kind enough to forward it to you. You notified me today that your docketing department has noted that the statutory period starts May 7, 2004 in this case and you asked me to send a letter stating that the start date of the Office action you received is May 7, 2004. I checked with our docketing department and the Patent Office start date of the statutory period in this case is also set for May 7, 2004. This start date is the result of a copy of the Office action mailed directly to you on this date, which you apparently have yet to receive from our conversation this morning. Our docketing departments are in agreement. The start date of the previous Office action is May 7, 2004. A copy of this letter will also be faxed directly to your firm.

Best regards,

Shanon Foley
